PARTITO SOCIALISTA UNIFICATO

[22/10/1968]

Socialist unified party

The XXXVII Congress of the Italian socialist party took place in Rome on 27th October. It was the last national congress of a party that represents a traditional party of the Italian working movement. In fact the congress had to ratify its fusion with the Italian socialdemocratic party.

Deep perplexities there were among socialist members for a political operation that winds up seventy years of history, working traditions, and opposition to capitalistic system and imperialism.

On 29th October also the congress of the socialdemocratic Party took place, in Rome.

This, in a few hours, ratified, without discussion, the fusion with the Italian socialist party, because it became on socialdemocratic bases. Two parties, then met together, in a common, public manifestation that is called "Socialist Constituent assembly". It marks the birth of the new unified party.

This shall be as electoral strength and organization the third one in order of importance in the Italian political arrayment.

The new party is born mined by deep contradictions.

At the Constituent assembly Tanassi, secretary of socialdemocratic party and Pietro Nenni spoke. Nenni said that new unified party has as aim ~~that~~ to be an alternative to Christian Democracy, but its present task is that to contend with Italian Communist Party for hegemony on working class. He confirmed therefore the unified party don't present itself, on Italian political scene, as an instrument of unity of socialist forces, but as a new element of division.

We can see before the congress of I.S.P. at Palazzo dei Congressi, Santi, Lombardi, Balzamo, Nenni, De Martino.

After the congress of I.S.D.P. at cinema Maestoso and Tanassi, Nenni, e xc. And then the Constituent Assembly, at Palazzo dello Sport, all'EUR.
