

7th OF NOVEMBER AT THE RED SQUARE

7th of November at the Red Square....

Forces of the Moscow Garrison are formed for the parade in honour of the 55th anniversary of October. Leaders of the Communist Party and the government are on the Central Tribune of the Lenin Mausoleum. Marshal of the Soviet Union Grechko, Minister of Defence of the USSR, greeted the forces and all Soviet people with the holiday. Marshal Grechko stressed that the Soviet Army and Fleet are faithful to their people and the Communist Party and are in constant high fighting trim. This is the hundredth parade at the Red Square. The soldiers of 1972 are heirs of the military fame of older generations of defendants of the conquests of Great October. Soviet Military Forces have the most perfect military technique. It is in the hands of capable and trustworthy men and is the main factor of the security of our Motherland, of the whole Socialist world, and in maintaining peace in the whole world.

The right to open the October demonstration was given to youth. The celebration of Great October in the year of the 50th anniversary of the foundation of the USSR were a vivid demonstration of the unity of the party and the people, of the friendship and fraternal cooperation of the peoples of our country, who are bringing to life the resolutions of the XXIVth Congress of the CPSU.

RENATO GUTTUSO

An exhibition of paintings of the outstanding Italian artist Renato Guttuso in honour of his 60th birthday and 40th anniversary of creative work was opened in the halls of the Academy of Arts of the USSR. In his works the artist expresses ideas of justice and peace. Renato Guttuso was awarded the International Lenin Prize "For Strengthening Peace Among Peoples" for his great merits to the grand cause of struggle against the forces of reaction and war. Academician Skobeltsin, Chairman of the Committee for International Lenin Prizes, presented the Prize to the big friend of our country. Expressing his sincere gratitude for the high evaluation of his political and creative activity. Renato Guttuso said that he will continue to put forward all his strength for the honourable cause of strengthening friendship among peoples.

ALBUVA

A new programme is staged in the Moscow circus at the Ovetnoi bulvar. The work of young circus artists is widely shown in the programme. Nelly and Rustam Kaseeva, the young tilters, are warmly greeted by the audience.

10385/a

CH/PP05/111