This anniversary is particularly widely observed in the countries of the socialist community, which are building a new life on the basis of Leninism and have been and are successfully putting Lenin's ideas into practice in social and interstate relations.

Communists and the working people of all countries are, again and again, turning their eyes and thoughts to Lenin, to his theory and practice, to the magnificent creations of his genius as a revolutionary fighter, thinker and statesman."

This policy was reiterated in the remarkable speech of L.I. In conclusion comrade Ponomarev said: /synch./.

"Lenin's entire life and work are a model of faithfulness to the working class and to the cause of the working people, sympathy for the exploited and oppressed, irreconcilability toward the oppressors, honesty, integrity and staunchness in the struggle for communist ideals.

To be faithful to Leninism means to consistently uphold the principles of Lenin's teaching, to creatively develop it, always to remain in touch with practice and the masses, to learn from their experience and to translate Lenin's ideas into practice.

Leninism is needed by all people, by the whole of humanity. It is our conviction that the farther we go, the more the awareness of the unbreakability of Leninism and the vital interests of human society will spread throughout the world.

Long live Leninism, the banner of revolutionary struggle, construction and peace!
